

John and Mary

"When shall we get mar-ried John? When shall we get mar-ried John?"

When shall we get mar-ried John? John, me own true love?"

- 1 "When shall we get married John, John me own true love?"
- 2 "On Monday morning, Mary, Mary me own true love."
- 3 "What shall I wear for the wedding dress, John?"
- 4 "A nice clean apron, Mary."
- 5 "Can't I have anything better than that?"
- 6 "What you want silk and satin for?"
- 7 "What shall I have for the wedding bouquet?"
- 8 "Buttercups and daisies, Mary."
- 9 "Can't I have anything better than that?"
- 10 "What you want arum lilies for?"
- 11 "What shall we ride to the church in, John?"
- 12 "An old wheelbarrow, Mary."
- 13 "Can't we have anything better than that?"
- 14 "What you want a horse and carriage for?"
- 15 "What shall we have for wedding feast, John?"
- 16 "A little bit of bacon, Mary."
- 17 "Can't we have anything better than that?"
- 18 "What you want cake with currants in for?"
- 19 "Where shall we go for the honeymoon, John?"
- 20 "To Tutbury and back again."
- 21 "Can't we go anywhere better than that?"
- 22 "What you want to go to London for?"

Sung by Mrs Lily Welch, Burton-on-Trent, Staffs

Collected by Pam Bishop and Charles Parker, 8 June 1967

From "Songs of the Midlands" ed Roy Palmer, EP Publishing 1972